

Ammunition Sales Certification Agreement

Before your first order of ammunition can ship, customers who are not licensed FFL dealers must fax, email, or mail a copy of the following documents to us (we will hold your order until the documents are received):

Ballistic Products Inc. ("BPI") must receive a copy of your state-issued driver's license or state identification card to verify date of birth and a signed copy of this Ammunition Sales Certification Agreement. If your state requires a separate state-issued license to purchase ammunition, then that document must also be sent.

To order ammunition, you must read and agree to the following items:

- (1). I am age 21 or older.
- (2). I am not prohibited from legally purchasing/possessing any ammunition.
- (3). Individual Local and State laws are too numerous to list (it is your responsibility to check other local and State laws before ordering), however, the following sales restrictions will apply:
 - California: No sales of ammunition to the city of Los Angeles, all of Orange County, or San Francisco.
 - Illinois: Residents must include a copy of their FOID card with a Drivers License or State ID, and the ammunition may be shipped only to an address on either of these documents. No ammunition sales to Cooke County or Chicago.
 - Massachusetts: No sales of ammunition or components to MA residents. Ammunition sales only to 01 FFL Holders with resale certificate.
 - New Jersey: Ammunition sales only to 01 FFL Holders with resale certificate.
 - New York: No ammunition sales to New York City. Check other local and State laws before ordering.
 - Washington DC: No sales of ammunition or components.
- (4). I understand that ammunition is non-returnable.
- (5). I understand that discharging, cleaning, or handling ammunition, components and/or firearms may cause exposure to lead, and I hold BPI harmless and I assume full responsibility for any such exposure.

I agree to all of the above information.
